

Lesson 6: Angels and Demons, Pt. 2

Intro.

Adrian Rogers

There is a spiritual world and this world is very real. The Bible does not deny it. As a matter of fact, the Bible affirms it. There are some who laugh at the idea of demons and spirits, and they would be somewhat amazed that in this day—in this realm—that a supposedly educated man would speak to a 20th century congregation about the reality of demons. But I want to tell you that there is no way possible that you can take this Bible at face value and deny the reality of the demonic.

1. Hell is I _____; the f _____ of hell are real. (Rev. 9:1-2)

R. G. Lee

I know some people call the preacher who stands squarely upon the teaching of Christ and His apostles “narrow,” “harsh,” “cruel.” As to being narrow, I have no desire to be any broader than was Jesus. As to being cruel, is it cruel to tell men the truth? Is a man to be called cruel who declares the whole counsel of God and points out to men their danger? Is it cruel to warn people on an excursion ship that the ship has sprung a leak and they must get to the lifeboats? Is it cruel to tell Miami that a hurricane is heading for the city? Is it cruel to arouse sleeping people to the fact that the house is on fire? Is it cruel to jerk a blind man way from the rattlesnake in the coil? Is it cruel to declare to people the deadliness of disease and tell them which medicine to take? Is it cruel to label poison with the crossbones and skull? I would rather be called cruel for being kind than called kind for being cruel.

5. These demons will be I _____. (Rev. 9:7)

Romans 1:21-22

Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,
