The Second Sunday of Easter
April 19, 2020

11:00 a.m. Choral Eucharist
Today’s Readings

Acts 2:14a, 22-32

Luke has described the coming of the Holy Spirit as best he can in human terms. He writes that it was “like the rush of violent wind” and “divided as of fire”. Now, on behalf of the other apostles, Peter has begun interpreting the event to the crowd that has gathered.

John 20:19-31

Early on Easter Day, Mary Magdalene has recognized a man standing near the tomb as Jesus. She has told the disciples: “I have seen the Lord.” The disciples fear that they may suffer the same fate as their master.

I Peter 1:3-9

The author writes to churches in rural Asia Minor. He addresses his letter to those “chosen and destined” by the Father and “sanctified” by the Holy Spirit in order “to be obedient to Jesus Christ” and to share in the forgiveness available through Christ’s sacrificial death.

The Prayers of the People for April 19, 2020

Celebrant: Through resurrection from the dead, God has given us new birth. Let us offer prayers to God for the living hope of all the world, saying; Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For peace from on high and for our salvation. Lord, hear our prayer,

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For the peace and healing of the whole world; for world leaders, for our nation and its people, remembering all who serve in the military, mission or outreach work,

Maxwell Adler, Drew Anderson, Andrew Shook, Legare Augenstein, Evans Barnes, Joseph Ditter, Henry Hanes, Thomas Hanahan, Christian Laderer, Dan Myers, Keene Nettles, Edward Pritchard IV, Andrew Rucker, Frances Skardon, Jake Thompson

Lord hear our prayer.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For Michael, our Presiding Bishop, and Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; for the Standing Committee of the Diocese of South Carolina, for all who minister in Christ and for all the holy people of God; remembering East Cooper Episcopal Church in Mt Pleasant. Lord, hear our prayer.

Lord, hear our prayer,

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For all who serve at the bedside of the sick; nurses, physicians, aides, technicians, and paramedics. Lord, hear our prayer.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For ourselves, our families, and all those we love, remembering the sick;

Paula Adams Rhett Dupke Beth McMaster
Stuart Christie Richard Edwards Michael Millar
Lindsay Cobb Paul Funk Les Norton
Ella Collier Gerry Johnson Rachel Pulling
Geoff Connor Arlene Hill Patty Show
Bill Cramer Steve Kroesen

Lord, hear our prayer,

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For all those in need, for all prisoners, for the hungry and the homeless. Lord, hear our prayer.

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

For those who have died in the faith of Christ;

The Right Reverend John Clark Buchanan, Marcia White Soldatos
Samuel H. “Mike” Morrow
Caroline Hassell Whitener, George Horn, and Albert Lynwood Hurst, who died in 2019.

Lord, hear our prayer,

Glory and praise to you, O living God.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, O Lord our God, who gives us eternal peace through Jesus Christ. Hear our prayers which we offer in the hope of glory, and breathe upon us with your Holy Spirit; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

About these prayers
Included in these prayers are the names of those for whom prayer has been requested by a parishioner or family member. The reason for being listed is kept confidential.

In addition to this Public Prayer List, Grace also maintains a Private Prayer List, for whom our prayer team prays daily.

We invite you to add yourself or members of your immediate family to either the public or private prayer lists by notifying Jean Bender, Canon for Pastoral Care,(843-991-0827), at the church office at 843-723-4575, by sending an email to jbender@gracesc.org, or by making a prayer request online at our website, gracechurchcharleston.org.

Hospitalization or Pastoral Issues
Please notify us if you or a family member is hospitalized and/or in need of a pastoral call or visit. We have no other way of knowing of a hospitalization or a pastoral need.

Please speak with a priest, call the church office at (843) 723-4575, or contact Jean Bender at (843) 991-0827 or jbender@gracesc.org.

Flowers
The Flower Guild places flowers and greens in the church through donations given in memory of loved ones, or in thanksgiving for loved ones or special occasions. The names are listed in the service bulletins.

If you would like to make a gift of flowers, please contact the Church Office at (843) 723-4575, visit our website, gracechurchcharleston.org, or sign up using the Flower Calendar in the hallway near the kitchen.

Introit
This joyful Eastertide
Charles Wood

This joyful Eastertide, away with sin and sorrow!
My Love, the Crucified, hath sprung to life this morrow.
Had Christ, that once was slain, ne’er burst His three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain: but now hath Christ arisen.

My flesh in hope shall rest, and for a season slumber:
Till trump from east to west shall wake the dead in number.
Had Christ, that once was slain, ne’er burst His three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain: but now hath Christ arisen.

Death’s flood hath lost its chill, since Jesus crossed the river:
Lover of souls, from ill my passing soul deliver.
Had Christ, that once was slain, ne’er burst His three-day prison,
Our faith had been in vain: but now hath Christ arisen.

Processional Hymn 212
Awake, arise, lift up your voice
Richmond

1. Awake, arise, lift up your voice, let Easter music swell;
rejoice in Christ, again rejoice,
and on his praises dwell.

2. Oh, with what gladness and surprise the saints their Savior greet;
nor will they trust their ears and eyes
but by his hands and feet.

3. Those hands of liberal love indeed in infinite degree,
those feet still free to move and bleed
for millions and for me.

4. His enemies had sealed the stone as Pilate gave them leave, lest dead and friendless and alone
he should their skill deceive.

5. O Dead arise! O Friendless stand by seraphim adored!
O Solitude again command
your host from heaven restored!

THE WORD OF GOD

The Acclamation and Response

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ is risen.
People: The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.
Celebrant: May his grace and peace be with you.
People: May he fill our hearts with joy.
Christ our Passover
(sung by all)

Alleluia! Our Lord
And Savior Jesus Christ
Is now our Passover indeed
And has been sacrificed;
So let us keep the feast
No more with enmity
But with the new unleavened bread
Of true sincerity.

Christ being raised from death
Will never die again,
For he has died to death and sin
And now death cannot reign;
The life that he now lives,
He lives to God on high,
So also are you dead to sin
Through Christ eternally.

The first fruits of the grave
Is Christ our living head,
For since by one came death, by one
Came new life from the dead;
For as in Adam all
Must die under the law,
So now shall all be made alive
In Christ. Alleluia.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who in the Paschal mystery established the new covenant of reconciliation: Grant that all who have been reborn into the fellowship of Christ’s Body may show forth in their lives what they profess by their faith; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 16

Conserva me, Domine

Refrain (sung first by Cantor, then by all)

God will not a - ban - don me to the grave.

Cantor: Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;
I have said to the Lord, “You are my Lord, my good above all other.”
All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.

All: Refrain

Cantor: But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.
Their libations of blood I will not offer,
or take the names of their gods upon my lips.

All: Refrain

Cantor: O Lord, you are my portion and my cup;
it is you who uphold my lot.
My boundaries enclose a pleasant land;
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.

All: Refrain

Cantor: I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel;
my heart teaches me, night after night.
I have set the Lord always before me;
because he is at my right hand I shall not fall.
All: Refrain

Cantor: My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; my body also shall rest in hope. For you will not abandon me to the grave, nor let your holy one see the Pit.

All: Refrain

Cantor: You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

The Epistle: I Peter 1:3-9

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Gradual Hymn 209

We walk by faith, and not by sight

St. Botolph

1. We walk by faith, and not by sight; no gracious words we hear from him who spoke as none e'er spoke; but we believe him near.

2. We may not touch his hands and side, nor follow where he trod; but in his promise we rejoice; and cry, "My Lord and God!"

3. Help then, O Lord, our unbelief; and may our faith abound, to call on you when you are near, and seek where you are found.

4. That, when our life of faith is done, in realms of clearer light we may behold you as you are, with full and endless sight.

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Holy Gospel: John 20:19-31

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Apostles Creed (metrical)

Hyfrydol

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being all created things began. We believe in Christ the Savior, Son of God in human frame, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came. Christ, who on the cross forsaken, like a lamb to slaughter led, suffered under Pontius Pilate, he descended to the dead. We believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign, to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again. We believe in God the Spirit; in one Church, below, above: saints of God in one communion, One in holiness and love. So by faith, our sins forgiven, Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory Anthem

Mary Magdalene

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897)

Early on that Easter Day
To the grave came Mary Magdalene,
Lo the stone was rolled away,
And an angel bright was seen.
The angel unto Mary said:
“Whom then seek’st thou Mary blest indeed!”
He is risen from the dead,
And thine ointment doth not need.”

“I Mary!” spake a voice so clear;
Mary turned her at that joyful word;
’Tis no gard’ner she doth hear,
’tis the voice of Christ the Lord!

The Doxology with Alleluias

Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
praise him, all creatures here below, alleluia, alleluia!
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluia!

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.
Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.
All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Anthem

O Sacred Feast

Healey Willian (1880-1968)

O Sacred Feast, wherein Christ is received, the memory of His Passion is renewed in us, our souls are filled with grace, and the pledge of everlasting glory is given unto us. Alleluya.
Communion Hymn 204

1. Now the green blade riseth from the buried grain,
   wheat that in dark earth many days has lain;
   love lives again, that with the dead has been:
   Love is come again
   like wheat that springeth green.

2. In the grave they laid him,
   Love whom hate had slain,
   thinking that never he would wake again,
   laid in the earth like grain that sleeps unseen:
   Love is come again
   like wheat that springeth green.

3. Forth he came at Easter,
   like the risen grain,
   he that for three days in the grave had lain,
   quick from the dead my risen Lord is seen:
   Love is come again
   like wheat that springeth green.

4. When our hearts are wintry, grieving, or in pain,
   thy touch can call us back to life again,
   fields of our hearts that dead and bare have been:
   Love is come again
   like wheat that springeth green.

Postcommunion Prayer

The Blessing

Closing Hymn 205

1. Good Christians all, rejoice and sing!
   Now is the triumph of our King!
   To all the world glad news we bring:
   Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

2. The Lord of life is risen today!
   Sing songs of praise along his way;
   Let all the earth rejoice and say:
   Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

3. Praise we in songs of victory
   That love, that life which cannot die,
   And sing with hearts uplifted high:
   Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

The Dismissal

Deacon: Alleluia! Go forth in the name of the risen Christ.

People: Thanks be to God, Alleluia!

A Word from the Dean

‘But Thomas (who was called the Twin), one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came.’

John 20:24

This post resurrection (social distancing) episode reminds us that our faith is rooted in far more than being present and gathered this Eastertide. Our gospel tells us that Thomas fell victim of missing the group event with the Risen Christ. It isn’t much of a leap to go from not being present to not believing. This should not surprise us. We are social animals and are informed by our experience and a big part of that experience is seeing for ourselves and encountering one another in our physical realities.

What is the lesson we might learn from this gospel story as we continue to live apart as followers of the risen Lord? Jesus told Thomas, ‘Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe.’ (John 20: 29b)

Maybe sight is overrated in Jesus’ mind. After all, when Jesus accepted his Father’s cup in the Garden of Gethsemane, nothing had changed in Christ’s physical world. The sights and smells, the fears and anxieties, remained the same. But what had changed was Jesus’ way of looking at the unchanged world around him. The gift of faith doesn’t seek to change our present circumstances as much as it invites us to see through them to God’s greater plan.

In our present life there are changes and challenges around us every day. And yet we know that we cannot change it all. We could not, even if we tried. Instead, we strive to live into the purpose of this present day whether it is a day we would hope for or not.

I keep returning to a window in the Guerry Chapel which shows Christ holding Grace Church Cathedral in his hands. That image in stained glass serves to teach a truth I hold dearly. For me, the gift of faith does not count on God giving us only great days to live filled with our favorite fun and joyful experiences. No, faith says that no matter what life sends our way we are being held by the one who has lived through and conquered life’s greatest hurts and challenges. Better yet just in case we feel that Jesus is a little too far removed from the challenges we are living today, the hands that hold us are wounded and scarred. He’s been there before me. If that is who is holding me, I can walk today’s challenging journey too.

Thanks, Thomas, your story is our story. And because of that you have given us a way to live not only by sight but by faith. Alleluia!

A Word from the Wardens and the Dean

This Easter was glorious AND different from any past Easters we have enjoyed at Grace! Many thanks to our clergy and dedicated musicians for bringing us a wonderful Holy Week and Easter. As of today, approximately 2,600 computers logged on to the Easter Vigil and/or Easter Sunday service!

Thank you all for your continuing connections to Grace Church Cathedral through your participation in Zoom classes and meetings, watching on Sunday, and supporting Grace financially. You are a remarkable church family!

We will have our second virtual Zoom Vestry meeting on Tuesday, April 21st. Our Finance Committee met Thursday, April 16, via Zoom, so the business of the church continues.

Our clergy gather, at least six feet apart, daily. During Holy Week they walked the Stations of the Cross. Currently they are walking the Stations of the Resurrection. Please send the clergy or Canon Jean Bender any prayer requests you may have. You can find their email addresses on page 14 of this bulletin.

The Tea Room and Mouse Boutique leadership have rescheduled these events for October 19 through 27 in an effort to continue to fund our local charities as much as possible. The Tea Room will be modified to be quarts of soups, chicken salad, pimento cheese and whole desserts, serving no individual lunches. The Church Mouse Boutique will be in Hanahan Hall along with the art sale. This year there will be a Preview Party on October 17! Stand by for more news about this addition to the Boutique.

Grace 2 Go continues on Wednesday evenings, thanks to our Hospitality Director Kathee Dowis and Ward and Bryan Lassoe. This ministry feeds about 70 people each week. Jean Bender is able to meet the large community need for grocery store prepaid cards, thanks to your generosity.

The Tuesday High School Fellowship is ongoing. Grace is providing leadership in an all-youth Evening Prayer sponsored by the Diocesan Happening Steering Committee. Father Caleb is staying in touch with his Confirmation Class providing creative ways to remain engaged.

The Little School is holding Zoom classes and Miss Jodi posts videos of books being read and activities for our children. She made Holy Week very special for our children.

In addition to the streaming services during the week and at 11:00 a.m. on Sundays, adult Sunday School continues at 9:30 a.m. with Father Bryce on Zoom, who will email you the link to the Zoom class upon request. You can contact him at Bwandry@gracesc.org.

These are difficult and worrisome times for everyone, but knowing you, our Grace family, is there and we are going through this together is a huge comfort. We are here for each other. Thank you, each of you, for all you are doing for each other and for Grace Church Cathedral.

Faithfully,
Michael+, Barry and Susie
Follow these steps to give online
Returning gifts to the church for her continued ministry remains an important part of worship. If now is a time you can continue to contribute, there are a number of ways to safely do so:

- If you would like to mail a check, you may address an envelope to Grace Church Cathedral, 98 Wentworth Street, Charleston, SC, 29401. Office staff are still handling details, though they are currently doing so in shifts or remotely.

- To give online, visit https://www.gracechurchcharleston.org/giving-serving and click “Make an Online Gift.” From there, you may enter a custom amount, choose a fund (such as 2020 Stewardship or donations made in honor/memory of a loved one), and fill out an optional memo line. After you provide your email address in the last remaining box, click "Continue." From there, you may enter in your ChurchLife password or click "Continue as Guest" and fill out your billing information to finalize your contribution.

If you have any questions, please contact our Director of Parish Life and Giving, Nancy Ezell Suggs, at nezellsuggs@gracesc.org.

Tea Room and Mouse Boutique
On March 31 at the virtual Vestry meeting, the Vestry unanimously approved a proposal to delay the 2020 Tea Room and Mouse Boutique until October of this year to coincide with the Preservation Society of Charleston Fall tours which run from October 8 through November 7. The Mouse Boutique, Art Sale, and Modified Tea Room will run October 19 – 27. The Church Mouse Boutique Preview Party will be held on Saturday, October 17. Hanahan Hall will be the home of the Church Mouse Boutique and the abbreviated Tea Room. This year, Tea Room will be meals-to-go only. The menu will include soups, chicken salad, pimento cheese, and whole desserts. We understand that there is a chance we will have to re-visit this proposal depending on the behavior of the COVID-19 virus, but we feel a strong commitment to continue funding our grant recipients as much as possible. As you clean out closets and attics during this time, don’t forget the Mouse Boutique! We will be pleased to accept your donations and pick up larger items as soon as the suspension of gatherings is lifted.

Contact Fr. Bryce for adult ed
If you are interested in any of our Adult Education offerings which meet on Sunday morning, Wednesday afternoon, and Thursday morning please email bwandrey@gracesc.org for the meeting times and Zoom information.

Subscribe to Grace on YouTube
While you may be aware that Grace streams Sunday services at https://www.youtube.com/user/GraceChurchChrlstn, what you may not realize is this is only part of the content you can find being released right now. Every weekday morning at 7:00 a.m. we are uploading a Morning Prayer video. Little School Chapel lessons are also being posted. If you would like to re-watch any of our services you can find them on our channel as well. If you have a Google account (any gmail email address is considered a Google account) you can follow the link above and click the red box that says “Subscribe” to be notified whenever we upload a new video. Please email our Director of Communications, Chris Prohaska, at cprohaska@gracesc.org with any questions.

Help with food needs
Many parishioners are reaching out in anticipation of the future needs in our community. A financial donation is one of the ways to help these organizations feed our Lowcountry community. Some of the partners we are working with include East Cooper Community Outreach (843-849-9220), Our Lady of Mercy-Community Outreach (843-559-4109), FreshStart Visions (https://freshstartvisions.org/), Lowcountry Food Bank (https://www.lowcountryfoodbank.org/), and James Island Community Outreach (843-762-3653). Through our pastoral ministry, Grace Church Cathedral continues to assist as needed, and we respond to all needs of our parishioners and the community as we are made aware of them. Thank you to all who are reaching out. Please contact our Canon for Pastoral Care, Jean Bender, at jbender@gracesc.org with any questions.

Sign up for our online newsletter
While our physical interactions may be limited for the moment, Grace Church Cathedral is still committed to communicating with our parishioners. One of our most valuable resources in this regard is our online newsletter, Grace to You. If you haven’t done so already, you can sign up at https://www.gracechurchcharleston.org/newsletters. This is the best way to know you’re receiving the most recent updates at Grace.
