Independence Day Celebration

11:00 a.m. Choral Eucharist Rite I Today’s Readings

Deuteronomy 10:17-21
The LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe, who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing. You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. You shall fear the LORD your God; him alone you shall worship; to him you shall hold fast, and by his name you shall swear. He is your praise; he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things that your own eyes have seen.

Hebrews 11:8-16
Faith gives substance to our hopes and convinces us of the realities we do not see. The author gives his readers examples of Old Testament figures who had great faith. They trusted in God in spite of lacking the promises Christ has made to us.

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old - and Sarah herself was barren - because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.” All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Matthew 5:43-48
Jesus said, “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Independence Day Prayer

The Reverend Frederick Brown Harris, D.D., Chaplain of the U.S. House of Representatives, offered the following prayer on July 5, 1943.

Our fathers’ God and ours, on the birthday of national independence we confess our dependence upon Thee. Without Thee we are lost in spite of the overwhelming might of our national arms.

We thank Thee for those pilgrims of faith who came hither in their frail barque across mountainous seas and who stepped upon strange shores with the salutation to a new world, “In the Name of God. Amen.” The Nation here established, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal has acknowledged that Name above every name and reverenced it, has built its altars, reared its temples, and raised its steeples, emblems of a faith that points to the skies and wings its sure and certain way to God. Make that faith of the fathers, we pray, real to us in these tempestuous days. Save us from a freedom of speech so empty that we have nothing worth saying, from a freedom of worship so futile that we have no God to adore, from freedom from want and fear with no creative idea as to how to use our plenty or our security for the redemption of our social order and for the salvation of our own souls. Let all that is low and unworthy in us sink to the depths. Let all that is high and fine in us rise to greet the morn of a new day confident that the best is yet to be. Amen.
The Prayers of the People for July 5, 2020

Celebrant: As we celebrate the birth of this nation, let us pray for all nations and peoples, saying: Lord have mercy.

For the holy catholic church throughout the world, and for the Standing Committee of the Diocese of South Carolina, for Michael our presiding bishop, and Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury; for the united Church of Pakistan in the Anglican Communion; for all associated with youth ministries and for the youth of our diocese, we pray,
Lord, have mercy.

For this nation and for all nations, peoples, tribes, clans, and families, we pray,
Lord, have mercy.

For liberty throughout the land and for mercy, justice, and peace in every place; for all who serve in the military, mission, or outreach work, remembering Maxwell Adler, Legare Augenstein, Evans Barnes, Henry Hanes, Thomas Hanahan, Griffin Hill, Denis Kuchta, Dan Myers, Keene Nettles, Edward Pritchard IV, Andrew Rucker, Frances Skardon, Jake Thompson, Andrew Shook. We pray,
Lord, have mercy.

For all who seek to keep the peace, who strive for justice to serve the common good, we pray,
Lord, have mercy.

For our forgiveness for injustice, bigotry, and oppression, we pray,
Lord, have mercy.

For the good land God has given us, and for our cities, towns, and communities, we pray,
Lord, have mercy.

For all affected by the Coronavirus, for all who are needy, forgotten, or lonely, remembering the sick:

Paula Adams  Janet Haughey  Les Norton
Geoff Connor  Richard Haughey  Thomas Person
William Cotter  Mary Hutchins  Suzanne Richardson
Sandra Dickey  John Ledlie  Linda Spreadbury
Rhett Dupke  Deanna Maust  Donald West
Kirk Grant  Sue Morrow  Susan West
Debi Gupton  Elgie Nissen

We pray,
Lord, have mercy.

For our ancestors in this land, and for all the faithful departed,
Fred Thomas and Carolyn King, Theodore Clyburn and John De Pencier Wright, We pray,
Lord, have mercy.

Celebrant: Blessed are you, God of all nations. Hear the prayers we offer on this national feast and bring us at last to our home in your heavenly realm; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prelude on “Land of Rest”
Leo Sowerby

Introit

Come, my way, my truth, my life
Harold Friedell

Come, my way, my truth, my life:
Such a way as gives us breath;
Such a way as ends all strife;
Such a life as killeth death.

Come, my light, my feast, my strength:
Such a light as shows a feast;
Such a feast as mends in length;
Such a strength as makes his guest.

Come, my joy, my love, my heart:
Such a joy as none can move;
Such a love as none can part;
Such a heart as joys in love.

-George Herbert

Processional Hymn 718

God of our fathers
National Hymn

1. God of our fathers, whose almighty hand leads forth in beauty all the starry band of shining worlds in splendor through the skies, our grateful songs before thy throne arise

2. Thy love divine hath led us in the past, in this free land by thee our lot is cast;
be thou our ruler, guardian, guide, and stay,
thy word our law, thy paths our chosen way.

3. From war's alarms, from deadly pestilence, be thy strong arm our ever sure defense;
thy true religion in our hearts increase,
thy bounteous goodness nourish us in peace.

4. Refresh thy people on their toilsome way, lead us from night to never-ending day;
fill all our lives with love and grace divine,
and glory, laud, and praise be ever thine.

THE WORD OF GOD

The Acclamation and Response
Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant: All kings shall bow down before God.
People: All the nations shall serve the Lord.

The Collect for Purity (said together)
Almighty God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.
Hymn

_O say can you see, by the dawn’s early light_ National Anthem

Oh say can you see, by the dawn’s early light, what so proudly we hailed at the twilight’s last gleaming, whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight, o’er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets’ red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say does that star-spangled banner yet wave o’er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

The Collect of the Day

_Celebrant:_ The Lord be with you.

_People:_ And with thy spirit.

_Celebrant:_ Let us pray.

Lord God Almighty, who hast made all the peoples of the earth for thy glory, to serve thee in freedom and peace: Grant to the people of our country a zeal for justice and the strength of forbearance, that we may use our liberty in accordance with thy gracious will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. _Amen._

_Please be seated._

The First Reading: Deuteronomy 10:17-21

_Today’s readings are found on page 2._

_Reader:_ The Word of the Lord.

_People:_ Thanks be to God.

Psalm 145:1-9 (choir) _Exaltabo te, Deus_ Anglican Chant: T. Hanforth

I will magnify thee, O God, my King and I will praise thy Name for ever and ever.
Every day will I give thanks unto thee and praise thy Name for ever and ever.
Great is the Lord, and marvelous worthy to be praised there is no end of his greatness.
One generation shall praise thy works unto another and declare thy power.
As for me, I will be talking of thy worship thy glory, thy praise, and wondrous works;
So that men shall speak of the might of thy marvelous acts and I will also tell of thy greatness.
The memorial of thine abundant kindness shall be shewed and men shall sing of thy righteousness.
The Lord is gracious, and merciful long-suffering, and of great goodness.
The Lord is loving unto every man and his mercy is over all his works.

The Epistle Reading: Hebrews 11:8-16

_Reader:_ The Word of the Lord.

_People:_ Thanks be to God.

_Please stand._
O beautiful for spacious skies
for amber waves of grain;
for purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood
from sea to shining sea!

America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
and crown thy good with brotherhood
from sea to shining sea!

America! America!
God mend thine every flaw, confirm thy soul in self-control,
thy liberty in law.

The Holy Gospel: Matthew 5:43-48

Gospeller: The Holy Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People: Glory be to thee, O Lord.

The Apostles' Creed (metrical)

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being all created things began.
We believe in Christ the Savior,
Son of God in human frame, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.
We believe in God the Spirit;
in one Church, below, above:
saints of God in one communion,
One in holiness and love.
So by faith, our sins forgiven,
Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Prayers of the People

Please see page 3 for the names of those we are praying for today.

Intercessor: We pray.
People: Lord, have mercy.

Confession and Absolution

The Peace

Celebrant: The Peace of the Lord be always with you.
People: And with thy Spirit.

O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.
Be ye sure that the Lord He is God:
it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.
O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise:
be thankful unto Him, and speak good of His Name.
For the Lord is gracious, His mercy is everlasting, and His truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen.

Presentation Hymn 717

My country, 'tis of thee

America

1. My country, 'tis of thee,
sweet land of liberty,
of thee I sing;
land where my fathers died,
land of the pilgrim's pride,
from every mountainside
let freedom ring.

2. My native country, thee, land of the noble free,
thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
thy woods and templed hills;
my heart with rapture thrills like that above.

3. Let music swell the breeze, and ring from all the trees
sweet freedom's song;
let mortal tongues awake,
let all that breathe partake,
let rocks their silence break,
the sound prolong.

4. Our fathers' God, to thee, author of liberty,
to thee we sing;
long may our land be bright with freedom's holy light;
protect us by thy might,
great God, our King.

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer II)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And with thy spirit.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
People: It is meet and right so to do.
Celebrant: It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

Creator of the light and source of life, who hast made us in thine image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.
Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying:

Sanctus and Benedictus S114

The Celebrant continues

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me.” Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory. And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ. And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord; By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say, Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayer of Humble Access

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

At the river

Aaron Copland

Shall we gather at the river,
Where bright angels’ feet have trod,
With its crystal tide forever
Flowing by the throne of God?

(Refrain)
Yes, we’ll gather at the river,
The beautiful, the beautiful river,
Gather with the saints by the river
That flows by the throne of God.

Communion Hymn 529

In Christ there is no East or West

McKee

1. In Christ there is no East or West, in him no South or North,
but one great fellowship of love
throughout the whole wide earth.

2. Join hands, disciples of the faith, whate’er your race may be!
Who serves my Father as his child is surely kin to me.

3. In Christ now meet both East and West, in him meet South and North,
all Christly souls are one in him,
throughout the whole wide earth.

The Postcommunion Prayer (said together)

339

All: Almighty and everliving God, we most heartily thank thee for that thou dost feed us, in these holy mysteries, with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and dost assure us thereby of thy favor and goodness towards us; and that we are very members incorporate in the mystical body of thy Son, the blessed company of all faithful people; and are also heirs, through hope, of thy everlasting kingdom. And we humbly beseech thee, O heavenly Father, so to assist us with thy grace, that we may continue in that holy fellowship, and do all such good works as thou hast prepared for us to walk in; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end.

The Blessing
Closing Hymn 680

O God, our help in ages past

1. O God, our help in ages past,
   our hope for years to come,
   our shelter from the stormy blast,
   and our eternal home:

2. Under the shadow of thy throne, thy saints have dwelt secure;
   sufficient is thine arm alone,
   and our defense is sure.

3. Before the hills in order stood, or earth received her frame,
   from everlasting thou art God,
   to endless years the same.

4. A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone;
   short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

5. Time, like an ever-rolling stream, bears all our years away;
   they fly, forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.

6. O God, our help in ages past,
   our hope for years to come,
   be thou our guide while life shall last,
   and our eternal home.

Dismissal

Deacon  Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
People: Thanks be to God.

Follow these steps to give online
Returning gifts to the church for her continued ministry remains an important part of worship. If now is a time you can continue to contribute, there are a number of ways to safely do so:

- If you would like to mail a check, you may address an envelope to Grace Church Cathedral, 98 Wentworth Street, Charleston, SC, 29401. Office staff are still handling details, though they are currently doing so in shifts or remotely.

- To give online, visit https://www.gracechurchcharleston.org/giving-serving and click “Make an Online Gift.” From there, you may enter a custom amount, choose a fund (such as 2020 Stewardship or donations made in honor/memory of a loved one), and fill out an optional memo line. After you provide your email address in the last remaining box, click “Continue.” From there, you may enter in your ChurchLife password or click “Continue as Guest” and fill out your billing information to finalize your contribution.

- Send a text message to 73256 (rather than a normal phone number) and enter “gracecathedralchas” as the message. It will then send a return message with a link where you may key-in your account donation and your card’s details.

If you have any questions, please contact our Director of Parish Life and Giving, Nancy Ezell Suggs, at nezellsuggs@gracesc.org.

Outreach Opportunities
In light of the COVID 19 viral pandemic, the leadership of the Tea Room and Church Mouse Boutique along with the Wardens and Vestry have made the difficult decision to cancel the modified Tea Room and Mouse Boutique that was to take place in October. To read the entire statement from Susie Carter, the Dean’s Warden, and Barry Gumb, the People’s Warden, you can refer to Friday’s Grace to You. It can be found at this link: https://www.gracechurchcharleston.org/newsletters

Adult Ed continues all July
We are happy to offer a book study through Zoom on July 8 and 15 at 12:45 p.m. We will be looking at Henri Nouwen’s book “Following Jesus: Finding Our Way Home in an Age of Anxiety.” There are copies available by contacting bookshoppe@gracesc.org and Zoom information is available by contacting bwandrey@gracesc.org. As always, we also invite you to join us each Sunday on Zoom at 9:45 a.m. for adult education. Contact Fr. Bryce for additional information.

Join us for Kanuga 2021
In light of the COVID-19 pandemic the Vestry voted to cancel our 2020 Labor Day Kanuga weekend and to book Kanuga for the Labor Day weekend in 2021. Go ahead and set a reminder on your phone, or make a note to mark your 2021 calendar, for our next parish weekend at Kanuga: Sept 3-6, 2021. While many of us will be sad not to gather at Kanuga Conference Center this year, just think how extra special it’s going to be for us to finally gather in those mountains after a year’s time has passed!

Tuesday Book Study Continues
The Tuesday Book Study continues to meet each week at 5:00 p.m. via Zoom. We are currently reading Ta-Nehisi Coates, “Between the World and Me.” This book study is now in its fourth year. Together, with members of the AME community, the group has read and discussed over 25 works pertaining to racial issues. All are invited. Each session stands alone, so you may join anytime. Please contact Tater Beak at peels1t@aol.com for the Zoom link.

Safe Sunday Night Live for Youth
We invite all youth to join us for a new worship experience in the cathedral. This youth-led service will take place in the sanctuary and strictly follow social distancing guidelines. We have measured out places for youth to stand that will form a big circle around the aisles of the church. Each participant will have their own bulletin and remain in their spot for the duration of our worship. Those who are leading music and doing readings will be toward the altar of the church for all to see. Each person who comes must wear a mask. Mark your calendars for July 12 at 5:00 p.m. as this will be our first gathering! If you plan to attend, please send an email to nkohlmann@gracesc.org by July 10 to let us know. We hope that you will consider joining us for this new opportunity to gather and be in community with one another. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Pray for Kairos
Our Kairos prison ministry is currently on hold. We are hoping to have another weekend visit in November, but this will depend on the situation surrounding COVID-19. We ask that you please pray for our friends in prison. If you have any questions about the Kairos visits, contact Deacon Mac Magee at mageemac@gmail.com.
