Today’s Readings

Acts 2:1-11
It is now fifty days since the Resurrection. Many pilgrims have come to Jerusalem for the Festival of Weeks. Luke, the author of Acts, tries to describe the coming of the Holy Spirit, but all he can say is what it is like. Divinity, to some extent, is beyond our experience and comprehension.

When the day of Pentecost had come, the disciples were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability. Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs – in our own languages we hear them speaking about God’s deeds of power.”

I Corinthians 12:3b-13
Early in this letter, Paul has noted that the Christians at Corinth “are not lacking in any spiritual gift”; even so, they appear to have written to him on the subject. He now teaches them more about gifts provided through the Holy Spirit.

No one can say “Jesus is Lord” except by the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allotts to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses. For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body – Jews or Greeks, slaves or free – and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

John 20:19-23
Early on Easter Day, Mary Magdalene has discovered that Jesus’ body is missing from the tomb. There is a man standing nearby. When he speaks to her, she recognizes him as Jesus. She has told the disciples: “I have seen the Lord.” Now Jesus appear in his resurrection body.

When it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.” When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”
The Prayers of the People for May 31, 2020

Celebrant: Let us pray to God the Holy Spirit, saying: Come, Holy Spirit, come.

Come, Holy Spirit, creator, and renew the face of the earth, we pray.

About these prayers

Included in these prayers are the names of those for whom prayer has been requested by a parishioner or family member. The reason for being listed is kept confidential.

In addition to this Public Prayer List, Grace also maintains a Private Prayer List, for whom our prayer team prays daily.

We invite you to add yourself or members of your immediate family to either the public or private prayer lists by notifying Jean Bender, Canon for Pastoral Care, (843-991-0827), at the church office at 843-723-4575, by sending an email to jbender@gracesc.org, or by making a prayer request online at our website, gracechurchcharleston.org.

Hospitalization or Pastoral Issues

Please notify us if you or a family member is hospitalized and/or in need of a pastoral call or visit. We have no other way of knowing of a hospitalization or a pastoral need. Please speak with a priest, call the church office at (843) 723-4575, or contact Jean Bender at (843) 991-0827 or jbender@gracesc.org.

Flowers

The Flower Guild places flowers and greens in the church through donations given in memory of loved ones, or in thanksgiving for loved ones or special occasions. The names are listed in the service bulletins.

If you would like to make a gift of flowers, please contact the Church Office at (843) 723-4575, visit our website, gracechurchcharleston.org, or sign up using the Flower Calendar in the hallway near the kitchen.

Introit

O Lord, give thy Holy Spirit
Thomas Tallis (1505-1585)

O Lord, give thy Holy Spirit into our hearts, and lighten our understanding, that we may dwell in the fear of thy Name, all the days of our life: that we may know thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

Processional Hymn

When God of Old
Winchester Old

When God of Old came down from heaven,
In power and wrath he came;
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame.

But when he came the second time,
He came in power and love;
Softer than gale at morning prime
Hovered his holy dove.

So when the Spirit of our God
Came down his flock to find,
A Voice from heaven was heard abroad,
a rushing, mighty wind.

The Spirit who searches even the depths of God.

When God of Old

1. When God of old came down from heaven,
   In power and wrath he came;
   Before his feet the clouds were riven,
   Half darkness and half flame.

2. But when he came the second time,
   He came in power and love;
   Softer than gale at morning prime
   Hovered his holy dove.

3. So when the Spirit of our God
   Came down his flock to find,
   A Voice from heaven was heard abroad,
   a rushing, mighty wind.

4. It fills the Church of God; it fills
   The sinful world around:
   Only in stubborn hearts and wills
   No place for it is found.

5. Come, Lord, Come Wisdom, Love, and Power,
   Open our ears to hear;
   Let us not miss the accepted hour:
   Save, Lord, by love or fear.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Let us pray.

Almighty God, on this day you opened the way of eternal life to every race and nation by the promised gift of your Holy Spirit: Shed abroad this gift throughout the world by the preaching of the Gospel, that it may reach to the ends of the earth; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 104:25-35,37

Benedic, anima mea

Refrain (sung first by Cantor, then by all)

Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

Cantor: O Lord, how manifold are your works!
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.
Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, creatures both small and great.

All: Refrain

Cantor: There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, which you have made for the sport of it.
All of them look to you to give them their food in due season.
You give it to them; they gather it;
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.

All: Refrain

Cantor: You hide your face, and they are terrified;
you take away their breath,
and they die and return to their dust.
You send forth your Spirit, and they are created;
and so you renew the face of the earth.

All: Refrain

Cantor: May the glory of the LORD endure for ever;
may the Lord rejoice in all his works.
He looks at the earth and it trembles;
he touches the mountains and they smoke.

All: Refrain

Cantor: I will sing to the Lord as long as I live;
I will praise my God while I have my being.
May these words of mine please him;
I will rejoice in the Lord. Hallelujah!

All: Refrain
The Second Reading: I Corinthians 12:3b-13

Gradual Hymn 228

1. Holy Spirit, font of light, focus of God’s glory bright, shed on us a shining ray.
   Father of the fatherless,
   giver of gifts limitless,
   come and touch our hearts today.

2. Source of strength and sure relief, comforter in time of grief,
   enter in and be our guest.
   On our journey grant us aid.
   Freshening breeze and cooling shade,
   in our labor inward reset.

3. Enter each aspiring heart, occupy its inmost part with your dazzling purity.
   All that gives to us our worth,
   all that benefits the earth,
   you bring to maturity.

The Apostles’ Creed (metrical)

We believe in God the Father, God almighty, by whose plan earth and heaven sprang to being all created things began.
We believe in Christ the Savior,
   Son of God in human frame, virgin-born, the child of Mary upon whom the Spirit came.

Christ, who on the cross forsaken,
   like a lamb to slaughter led,
   suffered under Pontius Pilate,
   he descended to the dead.
We believe in Jesus risen, heaven’s king to rule and reign, to the Father’s side ascended till as judge he comes again.

We believe in God the Spirit;
   in one Church, below, above:
   saints of God in one communion,
   One in holiness and love.
So by faith, our sins forgiven,
   Christ our Savior, Lord and friend, we shall rise with him in glory to the life that knows no end.

Holy Spirit, ever dwelling in the holiest realms of light;
Holy Spirit, ever brooding o’er a world of gloom and night;
Holy Spirit, ever raising sons of earth to thrones on high;
Living, life-imparting Spirit, Thee we praise and magnify.

Holy Spirit, ever living as the Church’s very life;
Holy Spirit, ever striving through her in a ceaseless strife;
Holy Spirit, ever forming in the Church the mind of Christ;
Thee we praise with endless worship for thy fruit and gifts unpriced.

Holy Spirit, ever working through the Church’s ministry;
Quickening, strengthening, and absolving, setting captive sinners free;
Holy Spirit, ever binding age to age, and soul to soul;
In a fellowship unending, Thee we worship and extol.

The Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give him thanks and praise.
Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. In fulfillment of his true promise, the Holy Spirit came down on this day from heaven, lighting upon the disciples, to teach them and to lead them into all truth; uniting peoples of many tongues in the confession of one faith, and giving to your Church the power to serve you as a royal priesthood, and to preach the Gospel to all nations

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:
The Celebrant continues

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, “Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.”

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.
And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Celebrant and People

Our Father, who art in heaven, as we forgive those hallowed be thy Name, who trespass against us.
thy kingdom come, And lead us not into temptation, thy will be done, but deliver us from evil.
on earth as it is in heaven. For thine is the kingdom,
Give us this day our daily bread, and the power, and the glory,
And forgive us our trespasses, for ever and ever. Amen.

Communion Anthem

Draw us in the Spirit’s tether

Draw us in the Spirit’s tether;
For when humbly, in thy name,
Two or three are met together,
Thou art in the midst of them:
Alleluya! Alleluya! Touch we now thy garment’s hem.

As the brethren used to gather
In the name of Christ to sup,
Then with thanks to God the Father
Break the bread and bless the cup, Alleluya! Alleluya! So knit thou our friendship up.

All our meals and all our living
Make as sacraments of thee,
That by caring, helping, giving,
We may true disciples be.
Alleluya! Alleluya! We will serve thee faithfully.

Text: Fr. Percy Dearmer (1867-1936)
Communion Hymn 513

Like the murmur of the dove's song

1. Like the murmur of the dove's song, like the challenge of her flight,
   like the vigor of the wind's rush, like the new flame's eager might:
   come, Holy Spirit, come.

2. To the members of Christ's Body, to the branches of the Vine,
   to the Church in faith assembled,
   to her midst as gift and sign:
   come, Holy Spirit, come.

3. With the healing of division, with the ceaseless voice of prayer,
   with the power to love and witness,
   with the peace beyond compare:
   come, Holy Spirit, come.

Postcommunion Prayer

All: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.
Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Blessing

Processional Hymn

1. Come, Holy Spirit, come! Inflame our souls with love; transforming ev'ry heart and home with wisdom from above.
   O let us not despise the humble path Christ trod, but choose to shame the worldly-wise, the foolishness of God

2. Come with the gift to heal the wounds of guilt and fear, and to oppression's face reveal the kingdom drawing near.
   Where chaos longs to reign, descend, O holy Dove, and free us all to work again the miracles of love.

3. Spirit of truth, arise; inspire the prophet's voice:
   expose to scorn the tyrant's lies, and bid the poor rejoice.
   O Spirit, clear our sight, all prejudice remove,
   and help us to discern the right, and covet only love.

4. Give us the tongues to speak, in ev'ry time and place, to rich and poor, to strong and weak, the word of love and grace.
   Enable us to hear the words that others bring,
   interpreting with open ear the special song they sing.

5. Come, Holy Spirit, dance within our hearts today, our earthbound spirits to entrance, our mortal fears allay.
   And teach us to desire, all other things above,
   that self-consuming holy fire, the perfect gift of love!

A Word from the Dean

Your Clergy, Wardens, Vestry, and staff continue to make plans to resume public services at Grace. Whatever we decide, be assured that we will make decisions carefully and with the idea that we develop a one step at a time process.

At this point, we are planning to have our first public services take place outdoors on weekdays sometime in June. We will begin with these celebrations of the Eucharist taking place in the Garden of Remembrance. Sunday services in the cathedral will follow as we continue to monitor the information needed to make such a decision. Our Diocesan Standing Committee’s recommendations are supportive of such an approach and we will be guided by their guidelines for resuming public services.

In the meantime, parishioners are free to drop by the cathedral to meet with the clergy and to pray and receive Communion.

Today we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost. We are changed by the wind of God blowing over us. Just like at creation God’s Spirit is bringing forth new life, new life out of chaos. Just like in God’s redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, God is among us changing us, like changing water into wine. I am reminded of the prophetic words of Paula D’Arcy who said that sometimes,

God comes to us disguised as our own life!

And so, Pentecost is not only about awaiting a gift. It is about accepting a gift that has already been given. Look around. God’s power and presence is real, as real as the wind. This is Pentecost’s great message for us. And that truth is not just God’s future promise. It is God’s present gift.

Count on it. Expect it. Embrace it. Reflect it.

Follow these steps to give online

Returning gifts to the church for her continued ministry remains an important part of worship. If now is a time you can contribute, there are a number of ways to do so:

- If you would like to mail a check, you may address an envelope to Grace Church Cathedral, 98 Wentworth Street, Charleston, SC, 29401. Office staff are still handling details, though they are currently doing so in shifts or remotely.

- To give online, visit https://www.gracechurchcharleston.org/giving-serving and click “Make an Online Gift.” From there, you may enter a custom amount, choose a fund (such as 2020 Stewardship or donations made in honor/memory of a loved one), and fill out an optional memo line. After you provide your email address in the last remaining box, click “Continue.” From there, you may enter in your ChurchLife password or click “Continue as Guest” and fill out your billing information to finalize your contribution.

- Send a text message to 73256 (rather than a normal phone number) and enter “gracecathedralchas” as the message. It will then send a return message with a link where you may key-in your account donation and your card’s details.

If you have any questions, please contact our Director of Parish Life and Giving, Nancy Ezell Suggs, at nezellsuggs@gacesc.org.

Consider EfM

Worship, reflect, and explore through your Bible, your church, and your call to be a Christian. Education for Ministry (EfM), a theological education program for the laity, is an in-depth opportunity to further your Christian journey. Consider participating in our upcoming session. For more information, contact Trish Ward (843) 345-1475 or wardp@cofc.edu, Lester Pittman (843) 574-6469 or lesterpittman@me.com or Canon Jean Bender (843) 723-4575 or jbender@gacesc.org.

Help fill the Red Wagon

As most of you know, the Red Wagon is one of the many ways Grace parishioners can participate in helping those in need during this time of crisis. You may drop food off in the wagon at the church between 8:00 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. on weekdays. All food is distributed between those who come by the office needing help, the Lowcountry Food Bank on Azalea Avenue, and Neighborhood House on America Street. If you have questions, please contact Mac Magee at mageemac@gmail.com.

Bishop Guerry Sunday

On Sunday, June 28, we will remember and celebrate William Alexander Guerry, the 8th Bishop of our Diocese. Our guest preacher for this service will be Fr. Rob Donehue, Rector of St. Anne’s in Conway.

Help fight COVID today

Grace Church Cathedral partners with Episcopal Relief and Development on every fifth Sunday of the month, and this month is no exception. Any donations you make will go towards their US Disaster programs to counter the effects of the COVID-19 virus. Contributions can be made online at Grace’s website under the “Giving” tab or by clicking this link: https://secure.accessacs.com/access/oglogin.aspx?sn=11598. Click the box that says “Select a fund” and find Episcopal Relief and Development. Checks may also be mailed to the church office at 98 Wentworth Street, Charleston SC, 29401. Please make checks payable to Grace Church Cathedral with Episcopal Relief and Development on the memo line. VBS goes virtual Vacation Bible School is still open for registration. During the week of June 15-19, we’ll be singing, dancing, making crafts, having fun with science, and trying some of our favorite snacks. The difference this year is we’ll be doing it virtually at a very healthy distance. Children of all ages are invited. Please join us as we find creative, active, and fun ways to explore our theme, Knights of the North Castle, Be Strong in the Lord. We plan to include a couple of “drive-through and pick up” events, so we will need to know the number of children who will be participating. All you have to do is visit the following link to fill out our form and sign up each child: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSdQwL6r4zVLJl2KgEbrNx7M29k6scufyR8Grx6LuELoMu9A3g/viewform.
